INDEX.

Abon Hassan (St. James's) 3
Adelaide Thornton, 6, 54, 389
Alcestes (St. James's) 26
Amateurs and their Institutions, 214
Annual address, 1
Apology for the actor, 300
Australia, dramatic progression, 123
From special Correspondents in Australia

Barbarous delights, 44, 49
Battle of the Alma, 6
Bayle Bernard, 57
Beginning and the End (Haymarket), 346
Brooke in Australia,—Letter I, 164; Letter II, 182

Charles Kean and his detractors, 357
Clements, Mr. Josh, 107
Critiques on the weekly performances at all the theatres in every Number

Decayed Actors, 198
Dramatic, equestrian, and musical agency and sick fund association, 219, 228
Defence of the actor, by W. Thomas, 331

Easter novelties, 117
Encroachments in the theatre, 203

General fund dinner, 120

Haymarket treasurer threshed, 361
Helen Faucit and Phelps contrasted, or genius and talent, 135
Henry VIII. at the Princess's, Magnificent revival of, 179
Hoxton musical instructive society, elocutionary entertainments, 83, 404

Immoral Literature, 265
Inkerman and liberty, 231
Islington mutual instruction society, 306
Italian Brothers, 13
Italian opera, 140
Illustrative Gatherings at St. Martin's Hall, by Miss P. Horton, 158

Jack and Gill, pantomime at Drury Lane, 2
Juliet, Lines to Helen Faucit as, 192
Julie, Mdlle., burnt to death at a country theatre, 401

Kean and Jerrold, 73
King Lear, excellence of, 89

Leon of the Iron Mask, Marylebone, 42
L'Etoile du Nord, Drury Lane, 65
Lights of the drama, 155
Love's Martyrdom, by Saunders, 192

Melpomene Rampant, 77
Miss Glyn at her old tricks, 391
Miss Herbert's night at the Mechanics, 396
Marylebone Institution, 21
Mechanics' Institution, elocutionary display, 52, 58, 396
Music degraded at Covent Garden, 25

Nash and Lord Ernest Vane Tempest, 364
Newington Hall, 27
Nitrocis at Drury Lane, 321
North London midlin dips, 99

O. Smith, death of, 41
Our benefit at the Strand, 297, 313

Provincial intelligence—
Copious accounts of the principal doings at all the country theatres in each number
Players at the Soho, 27
Poets and Actors, 143
Philharmonic Rooms, 339, 372

Rob Roy at the Soho, 19
Remarks by an Old Reader, 33

Shaksperian studies—
Rosalind, 289
Stage ladies' maid, 352
Smith, J. E., sketch of, 95
Soho amateurs—
Reviews of all the important performances by gentlemen amateurs in each number
Supper to the editor, 225
Sheridan Knowles, stage and pulpit, 131, 139
Shakspeare's moral lessons, 174
Swanborough, Miss, debut of, 42
Soldier's farewell, 285

The Christmas clown, 14
Theatrical annoyances and inconveniences, 411
Thackeray, W. M., sketch of, 36
Toole, Mr. J. L., 78
Tussaud's exhibition, 211, 221, 239, 273
Theatrical annoyances, 5

Violations of nature in the acting department, 412

War and the stage, 14
What the pantomimes will be, 409
Wilby's Rooms, 21
Wife at the Cabinet, 20
Warming, 22
Weep, Britons weep, 55
Wife, or no wife, by Heraud, at the Haymarket, 223

END OF THE SIXTEENTH VOLUME.

FINSBURY PUBLIC LIBRARIES REFERENCE DEPT.

INDEX.

Abon Hassan (St. James's) 3
Adelaide Thornton, 6, 54, 389
Alcestes (St. James's) 26
Amateurs and their Institutions, 214
Annual address, 1
Apology for the actor, 300
Australia, dramatic progression, 123
From special Correspondents in Australia

Barbarous delights, 44, 49
Battle of the Alma, 6
Bayle Bernard, 57
Beginning and the End (Haymarket), 346
Brooke in Australia,—Letter I, 164; Letter II, 182

Charles Kean and his detractors, 357
Clements, Mr. Josh, 107
Critiques on the weekly performances at all the theatres in every Number

Decayed Actors, 198
Dramatic, equestrian, and musical agency and sick fund association, 219, 228
Defence of the actor, by W. Thomas, 331

Easter novelties, 117
Encroachments in the theatre, 203

General fund dinner, 120

Haymarket treasurer threshed, 361
Helen Faucit and Phelps contrasted, or genius and talent, 135
Henry VIII. at the Princess's, Magnificent revival of, 179
Hoxton musical instructive society, elocutionary entertainments, 83, 404

Immoral Literature, 265
Inkerman and liberty, 231
Islington mutual instruction society, 306
Italian Brothers, 13
Italian opera, 140
Illustrative Gatherings at St. Martin's Hall, by Miss P. Horton, 158

Jack and Gill, pantomime at Drury Lane, 2
Juliet, Lines to Helen Faucit as, 192
Julie, Mdlle., burnt to death at a country theatre, 401

Kean and Jerrold, 73
King Lear, excellence of, 89

Leon of the Iron Mask, Marylebone, 42
L'Etoile du Nord, Drury Lane, 65
Lights of the drama, 155
Love's Martyrdom, by Saunders, 192

Melpomene Rampant, 77
Miss Glyn at her old tricks, 391
Miss Herbert's night at the Mechanics, 396
Marylebone Institution, 21
Mechanics' Institution, elocutionary display, 52, 58, 396
Music degraded at Covent Garden, 25

Nash and Lord Ernest Vane Tempest, 364
Newington Hall, 27
Nitrocis at Drury Lane, 321
North London midlin dips, 99

O. Smith, death of, 41
Our benefit at the Strand, 297, 313

Provincial intelligence—
Copious accounts of the principal doings at all the country theatres in each number
Players at the Soho, 27
Poets and Actors, 143
Philharmonic Rooms, 339, 372

Rob Roy at the Soho, 19
Remarks by an Old Reader, 33

Shaksperian studies—
Rosalind, 289
Stage ladies' maid, 352
Smith, J. E., sketch of, 95
Soho amateurs—
Reviews of all the important performances by gentlemen amateurs in each number
Supper to the editor, 225
Sheridan Knowles, stage and pulpit, 131, 139
Shakspeare's moral lessons, 174
Swanborough, Miss, debut of, 42
Soldier's farewell, 285

The Christmas clown, 14
Theatrical annoyances and inconveniences, 411
Thackeray, W. M., sketch of, 36
Toole, Mr. J. L., 78
Tussaud's exhibition, 211, 221, 239, 273
Theatrical annoyances, 5

Violations of nature in the acting department, 412

War and the stage, 14
What the pantomimes will be, 409
Wilby's Rooms, 21
Wife at the Cabinet, 20
Warming, 22
Weep, Britons weep, 55
Wife, or no wife, by Heraud, at the Haymarket, 223

END OF THE SIXTEENTH VOLUME.

FINSBURY PUBLIC LIBRARIES REFERENCE DEPT.